DISCOVERY

PALERMO UNDERGROUND

The Qanat Tunnels, a Unesco World Heritage Site

Palermo is a treasure trove of architectural heritage, yet many of the city's best kept secrets are hidden from view. Among these are the Qanat; a series of underground tunnels dating back to the Arab rule between 827 to 1061. You'll begin this surreal experience by descending 15 meters via an iron ladder. Prepare for a slightly more humid atmosphere than above ground, while your torch reveals the ancient pathways that enriched the soil of some of the city's most famous Palaces and Royal gardens.

Up to 20 guests

THE MYSTERIES OF PALERMO

Castles, Catacombs and Churches

Palermo is home to an array of extraordinary castles, gardens, catacombs and churches. On this tour, you'll marvel at some of the capital's most unusual monuments including The Zisa castle which was built as King William the Conqueror's private summer residence, and the Capuchin Catacombs with its astonishing display of 8,000 mummies. The day concludes with a visit to the Spasimo: a wonderful open air theatre. A symbol of Palermo's renaissance, the Spasimo is located in the pulsating heart of the Kalsa, a fantastic location to enjoy an aperitivo after your day of sightseeing.

PALAZZO ALLIATA DI PIETRA TAGLIATA

The angular stone façade of Palazzo Alliata di Pietra Tagliata rises up behind the bustling market stalls on Via Bandiera in central Palermo. This striking palazzo was originally conceived in the 15th century and evolved over time thanks to its successive owners. Inside, authentic Sicilian Rococo interiors are decorated in a blaze of stuccoes, while gilding and frescoes by the celebrated Vito D'Anna contrast the more austere, earthy tones of a later neo-Gothic makeover.

Palazzo Alliata can accommodate up to 120 seated guests in the main room and 80 seated guests in the adjacent room
